

Print, Inc. Named Fourth Fastest-Growing Private Company in Washington State Puget Sound Business Journal recognizes Print, Inc. for extraordinary growth

KIRKLAND, WA (October 28, 2003) - Print, Inc., the recognized leader in cost-per-page procurement and output outsourcing, was honored recently for outstanding growth by Puget Sound Business Journal. Print, Inc. was ranked fourth on the Journal's ninth annual list of the 100 Fastest-Growing Private Companies in Washington. Each year with this ranking, Puget Sound Business Journal distinguishes independent privately held Washington state companies with a substantial revenue growth rate over a three-year period. Print, Inc. increased its revenues by 628.5% percent from $3.98 million in 2000 to $28.99 million in 2002.

"We are proud to be ranked so highly the first year that we have been eligible for this award," said Gary Stevens, Print, Inc.'s CEO and founder. "We owe this achievement to our loyal customers and dedicated employees. With our continued growth we expect to be on this list next year and for the foreseeable future."

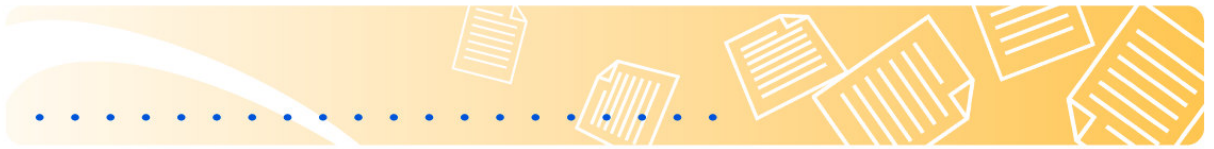

Print, Inc. operates out of 17 offices in major markets across the country, with the headquarters in Kirkland, WA. The company provides its 700 customers with the ability to pay for printing by the page in a utility model that includes equipment, supplies, and service wrapped into a single monthly bill.

Print, Inc. attributes its success to offering a solution that helps businesses simplify the complexities that result from the convergence of office technologies, such as printing, copying, and faxing, while at the same time leveraging the latest digital technology.

The 2003 award was published October 17th, in a special supplement to the Journal.
